Skee ball playing on the Boardwalk has proved a popular diversion for many during the last week. Skee ball, sometimes called aeroplane bowling, is a variation of bowling, in which the ball is put to entirely new use. When the ball, which is about the size of a duckpin ball, is rolled rapidly over a 20-foot alley to a scientifically designed hump it leaps into the air, and when properly directed it will enter when properly directed it will the bull's-eye, sixteen feet beyon hump, scoring 50 points. The great essential of a resort hotel, as distinguished from a city hotel, is ample public space devoted to the use of its guests, in the form of bright and airy Exchanges, Lobbies, Parlors, Galleries and Solariums, affording pleasing vistas and beautiful promenades, the whole combining into a harmonious vision of grandeur and beauty, while replete with the cozy group seclusions of home, and yet affording full view of the pleasing panorama of the resort life. In this essential the
